

Napali Woode, HLI Chief Financial Officer

Native Hawaiian

Mr. Napali Woode has an extensive history and experience working for local and international business corporations and non-profits. He is the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) at Hawaiian Lending & Investments, providing fiscal management of its accounting system, production of financial statements, and coordination of corporate tax filings and annual audits. In addition, Napali serves on the HLI Loan Committee in review and risk management of HLI's loan portfolio.

With his vast management, regulatory compliance and analytical skills, Napali founded Domer 88 LLC, operating since 2018 in service to Indigenous non-profit community development organizations and charter schools.

Prior employment from 2003 to 2017, Napali was employed as the Chief Financial Officer at the Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement (CNHA), responsible for all fiscal functions, grants and contract compliance, loan portfolio oversight, as well as human resource management.

Napali graduated high school at a Department of Defense Dependent School system in Germany as the son of a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army assigned overseas. Napali holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Notre Dame.

He values community service, as a proud member and treasurer for several non-profit boards such as Papaku No Kamehameha, the Native Hawaiian Chamber of Commerce and Puu Honua Society. Napali resides on the island of Oahu and has a passion for canoe paddling and the game of golf.

About HLI. Hawaiian Lending & Investments, founded in 2020 by the Sovereign Council of Hawaiian Homestead Associations is a Native CDFI providing consumer, business, agricultural, housing and green energy financial services.

About SCHHA. The Sovereign Council of Hawaiian Homestead Associations is a tribal organization and coalition of self-governments exercising sovereignty on Hawaiian Home Lands and is registered with the U.S. Department of Interior under 43 CFR Part 48.6.